

Poplar Springs

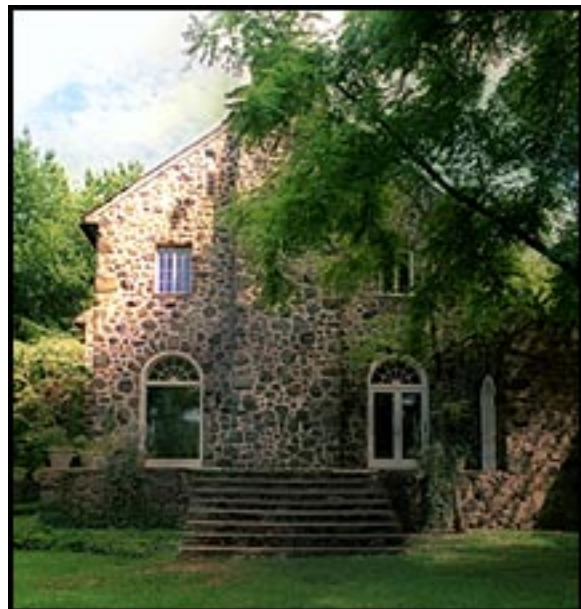

The INN Spa

Relaxation beckons as you wind your way up the drive to a world of consummate luxury at Poplar Springs, The INN Spa, an intimate boutique hotel nestled in the Virginia countryside. Surrounded by 200 private, rolling acres of landscaped and natural beauty, The INN Spa is a tranquil refuge created for guests seeking the ultimate in dining, fitness and relaxation. A mere fifty miles from Washington, DC's theaters and museums and minutes from historic Warrenton, VA, Poplar Springs is a welcome escape.

Enter a world where your enjoyment and well-being are the only focus. Leave the daily stresses behind and choose a treatment to refresh your soul. Our experienced staff will insure that you leave renewed. The Spa offers a full menu of treatments designed to revitalize and relax. Therapeutic Massages, Facial and Body Treatments and a full service salon are available. We also offer steam rooms and a cardio-fitness room for your pleasure. Choose an individual treatment or indulge in one of our Spa packages for a total escape.

A broad range of meeting and special event spaces for corporate meetings, executive retreats, lectures and special celebrations make Poplar Springs, The INN Spa, a destination for the most discriminating client.

All of our unique guestrooms offers a luxurious retreat. Abundant natural light filters into beautifully decorated rooms and suites with oversized bathrooms. Sumptuous goose down duvets and luxurious triple-sheeted beds dressed with the finest imported linens are waiting to envelop you in comfort. Step out to private patios, which reveal your personal expanse of the countryside. Amenities such as telephone with voicemail and high speed internet access and data ports, satellite TV, morning paper at your door, plush robes, exquisite bath amenities and nightly turndown service enhance the experience.

Whether you choose to relax by the pool with a good book, take a leisurely stroll on the grounds of the estate or embark on an adventure, Poplar Springs offers a multitude of activities from which to choose: Swimming, Tennis, Biking, Nature Trails, Jogging, Croquet, Yoga, Body Conditioning, Self-awareness, Nutrition and Meditation Workshops, Cooking Classes, and Carriage Rides. You may choose to enjoy the surrounding area for Golf, Horseback riding, Civil War Tours, Wine Tasting or a trip to our Nations Capital. Our concierge will be delighted to assist in arranging any and all of your desired activities.

The ambience of The Manor House Restaurant located on the estate, in the historic estate house, is surpassed only by the exquisite cuisine. The main dining room with its soaring stone walls and thirty foot ceiling, dramatic timber beams, balconies, elegantly arched windows, and double French doors leading to a flag-stone terrace and views of the rolling lawn will delight your senses.

You will experience delectable American cuisine elegantly prepared, exquisite service and wonderful wines from our well-stocked cellar. Our sommelier has chosen a variety of stylish wines to tempt those with an adventurous palate with exotic and subtle flavors. For the less adventurous, outstanding wines from around the world as well as Virginia favorites are offered. The Manor House Restaurant is a culinary experience not to be missed.

For an aperitif or after dinner cognac please join us in Casanova's (pictured above). The warmth of a roaring fire or a gentle breeze off the lake will be a pleasant ending to a fabulous evening.

Executive Retreats, board meetings, team building exercises or as a reward for a successful campaign, meetings become memorable when held at Poplar Springs. Our conference staff will assist with all phases of planning and implementation and the entire professional staff of Poplar Springs is ready to assist in assuring a successful meeting. From table configurations to custom menus and décor, our number one priority is the success of your meeting.

Our meeting rooms offer a variety of facilities, which afford the meeting planner a choice of size and character to fit the specific nature of each meeting. All of our rooms offer a private environment where you can conduct your meeting in a professional manner. All rooms provide high-speed Internet access and may be equipped with full audiovisual services as your needs require. The added availability of numerous indoor and outdoor break out areas for informal sessions make Poplar Springs a preferred destination for productive business meetings.

Our spa offers the perfect place to relax and unwind after a day of meetings and a full range of activities are available for those traveling with the business person.

Privileged Weddings

A horse drawn carriage enters through the stone pillars onto the tree-lined drive carrying a beautiful bride. Past the stone Manor house the carriage winds it's way down the lane to the Inn where the guests await. Such are the images of a private wedding at Poplar Springs. From receptions to complete wedding weekends, let the experienced staff of Poplar Springs make all your dreams come true. Your personal wedding planner will handle every detail to insure that your wedding day is exactly the way you envision.

Reception rates start at $250.00 per person and include fee for facility use, all equipment including tenting, superb food, premium beverage service and white gloved staff. The exclusive use of The Inn is a requirement for weddings of more than 100 guests so that you may entertain your guests privately. This provides your guests with twenty-two guest rooms, use of the pool and tennis court and access to the spa facilities (spa treatments would be priced separately).

Please call us to discuss your wedding, meeting or event, or email us on the web at events@poplarspringsinn.com or innspa@poplarspringsinn.com.
